SUMMER SCHOOL A SURE SUCCESS

President of Winthrop Asks That Anderson County Be Well Represented This Year

While it is a little early for the Auderson county teachers to be making arrangements for the coming Summer, many of them have already said that they will attend the Summer school to be conducted by Winthrop college at Rock Hill, For several weeks J. B. Feston, this superintendent of education for Anderson county has been urging the teachers to attend and doubtless he will redouble his efforts since he has received the following letter from D. B. Johnson, president of Winthrop college:

"I have sent out a number of Summer School bulletins to the teachers in your county. I believe that it will be a help to your teachers and to your country schools to have your teachers attend our Summer School this

SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES Surrounding the Death of Little One In Atlanta.

Atlanta, May 5.—Following the death of little Mary Bashelor of this city, the police are making investigations to ascertain whether the child died as the result of a whipping or from other causes.

The dead child, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bashelor of Crew Street, was only a little more than three years old The mother who was taken before the chief of detectives admitted years that the father had beauten the child Friday night, because the fittle one had put its finger of the sugar bowl at the supper to the sugar bowl at the supper to the grilling of Mrs. Bashelor at the police station followed a message sent from the Grady hospital to the police that the discumstances surrounding the child's death were suspicious.

A., yesterday ordered one dozen Boy Scout uniforms from Broadwell's docket showed a total ci the headquarters of this great organization for boys and within the next wor while numerous other cases were dispatched during the day. Of the 13 trainings the Anderson youngsters will be underway.

Mr. Burnett said yesterday that he expected to be swamped with applica-tions from boys desiring to be mem-bers and that he was ready to enroll up to the court of General Sessions for trial.

Three white men, Alfred Taylor, John Campbell and Jim Campbell, were tried on a charge of gambling and all three of these were acquitted. Oscar Moore a white man, was placed in jail yesterday on a charge of buying goods under false representation and he will be given a hearing before Mr. Broadwell today.

The docket in the Magistrate's effice last night shows that a number of gambling cases are to come up for trial this morning, a majority of the cases being against nighted.

Anderson people are already ifamiliar with the work being done by this great organization and they knew that the Boy Scouts of America are foiling in the great of the regulation pattern are service-able and will make the youths show up in handsome fashion when they are completed and that in all probability it would take about two weeks for the uniforms to reach Anderson and by that time he will have all his plans for organizing the patrol in good shape.

votes were: W. H. Gibbes, 817; F. S. Earle, 937; L. A. Griffith, 935.

It is said that in the second election

most of the Gibbes votes will go to Dr Earle, who has for two years been a member of the city commission. He and Mr. Gibbes were in a three cornered race for mayor in 1900, and Mayor Gibbes defeated Dr. Earle for mayor under the commission form of government four years ago. Dr. Griffifth is a son of Capt. D. J. Griffith, superintendent of the state penitentiary.

There were two commissioners to be elected for four years each and there were 14 candidates. The four who received the highest vote were R. J. Blaicek, incumbent, E. M. DuPre, D. B. Sloan and C. M. Asbill. Of those left out was W. F. Stieglitz, incumbent, and head of the waterworks department of the city. E. M. DuPre has relatives in Anderson, and is a son of B. Clark DuPre, formerly of Due West. D. B. Sloan has been a police sergeant for years. John E. Black, E. J. Brennen, T. B. Grabam. There were two commissioners to be Black, E. J. Brennen, T. B. County Commissioners Yesterday Extended the Limit Until First Day of June

(From Wednesday's Daily)
The Anderson county commission ers, in session yesterday at the court house; transacted little business of importance with the exception of ex-importance with the exception of ex-tending the time limit for the pay-ment of road taxes. This action was taken following the consideration of the board over the fact that so much uncertainty had prevailed about pay-ing road tax.

For some time it was a question of doubt as to whether the tax pay-ers of Anderson county should pay $1 or $2 and for that reason the coun-ty treasurer was not able to accept road taxes until some weeks after the regular time. Knowing that this had been the case the commissioners yes-terday extended the time limit for pay-terday extended the time limit for pay-ing these taxes until June 1 but there will positively be no further exten-sion after that time, according to one of the board members.

The board considered a proposition to grade a hill between Sandy Springs and O'Neal bridge and orders were given that the chaingang be placed on this work as early as possible.
